Annals of Sephyros, dusty they may be, an enlightened mind may lighten the dark corners of history. Find the way within this old scroll, enrich your soul with what will be told.

The Past

Brought forth anno Domini 2002.

With the intentions to use, a creative mix between gothic, doom and power metal. It succeeded, but unfortunately not for long....

Then, the sky turned, major changes until the west wind became steady, we finally stand strong and stable, as never before.

A new beginning, but still in the same direction, we strive to succeed, where they had fought for....

The Present

We will bring the ancient heroes home again.

By using their thoughts, their feelings, joy and pain, courage and cowardice.

Myths, legends, gods and goddesses, tangled into everyday life.

Inspiration for us and our songs.

Combining, we will, our thoughts and emotions, with their written and spoken words.

Continue sharing the passion for music and poetry.

Time will tell.... what "The Future" will bring....
